IH INGLEBY HOMES

This stunning detached bungalow delivers very impressive and stylish accommodation that demands internal inspection to be properly appreciated.

Completely transformed with a significant refurbishment and updating works, all undertaken since 2022. Spacious and versatile, the living space is brought to a terrific standard, with features such as the superb refitted kitchen, refitted ground floor shower room, fully replaced windows and doors, completely re-tiled roof, loft conversion bringing two further bedrooms and WC, bi-fold doors in lounge, 'Glass and Oak' staircase and replaced full central heating system - all deserving of a special mention.

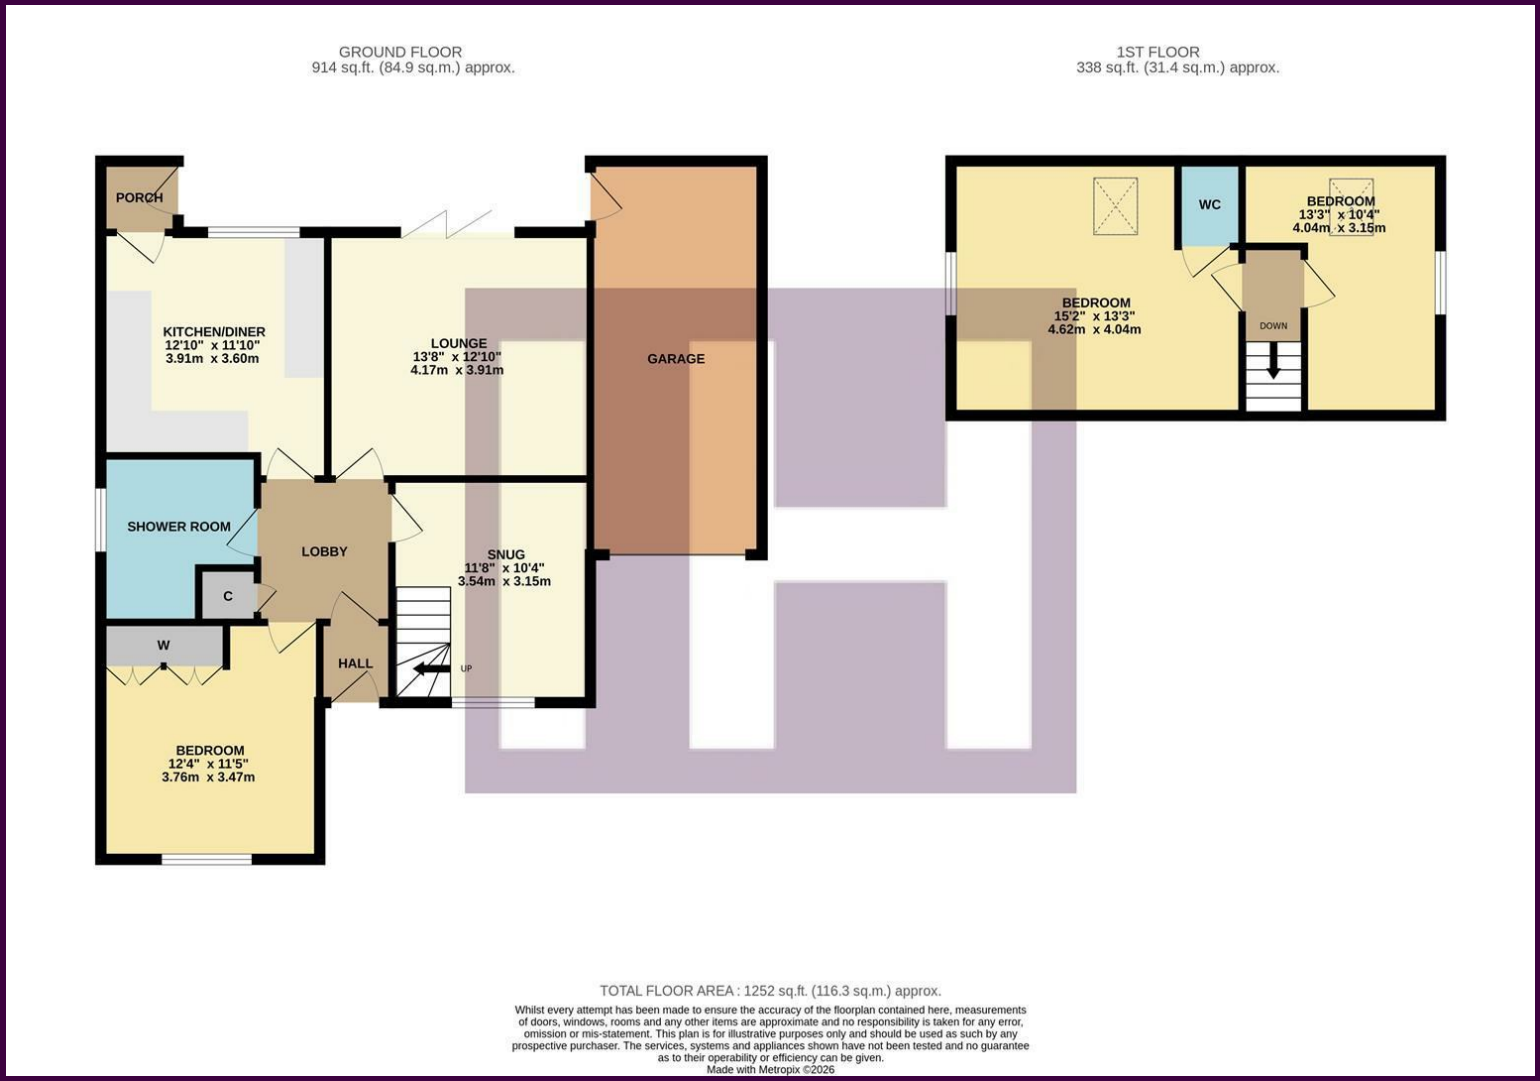

Enjoying a pleasant position within this sought-after address, with a generous gated drive allowing ample off-road parking and approaching the side garage, passing the lovely front gardens with lawn and established trees and greenery. Complimented by the rear 'court-yard' style garden whish is easily maintained and laid mainly to pave, with a timber-built, roofed seating area and deck.

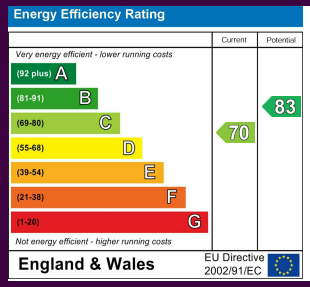

Internally, the accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall, inner lobby, rear lounge with bi-fold doors and feature fireplace, refitted kitchen with integrated appliances, superb refitted shower room, generous double bedroom with fitted robes and further sitting room/snug with a 'glass & oak' staircase to the first floor. Here you find two further bedrooms, the larger with a range of fitted robes and built-in dresser, and a cloakroom/WC which could be adapted to provide a full ensuite.
