

Bespoke Property Management

We offer the perfect combination of extensive block and estate management experience and a committed local and personal service. We support resident management companies, right to manage companies, property developers and freehold investors across the region by providing services that make managing your block or estate easy.

Safety

Appointing Kingston Real Estate (Property Management) Ltd will give you complete peace of mind that all due diligence, legislation and best practice will be followed. We will take away the worry of you having to keep up with ever-changing fire and health & safety legislation, by ensuring your building is fully compliant at all times.

Proactive Response

All enquiries made to Kingston Real Estate (Property Management) Ltd are dealt with efficiently, the most important thing is availability. We understand the frustration when customers struggle to get in touch, which is why Kingston Real Estate (Property Management) Ltd do not employ any type of automated service as part of our contact team, every phone call, email, letter will be answered by one of the property managers.

Value for Money

Good block management reduces individual costs and helps maximise the value and marketability of individual properties within a larger building. Kingston Real Estate (Property Management) Ltd are able to offer a bespoke service at a competitive rate to meet with a client's requirements.

Protection of Buildings

We look after your assets as if they are our own. The value of a property in a block of flats is directly impacted by how that block is managed, which is why we have such a proactive approach to maintenance. Well managed developments protect Leaseholders interests.

Quality of Service

Kingston Real Estate provide a full residential property management service to include every aspect of the work required to maintain the property and ensure the security and comfort of leaseholders. Continuity of knowledge has led to us now managing and maintaining over 50 residential blocks of flats and estates. All aspects of our service is completed with the greatest diligence. Kingston Real Estate persistently strive for excellence, this passion drives our performance and influences our results.