An outstanding four-bedroom semi-detached period home in a highly sought-after location close to Rickmansworth town centre and station. Built in 1917, this beautifully presented family home has been thoughtfully extended by the current owners to create an impressive and deceptively spacious property extending to approx 2,359 sq ft.

A welcoming entrance hall features a stylish cloakroom and striking original stained-glass double doors opening into an elegant reception room. Throughout the home, character features blend seamlessly with contemporary design to create exceptional family living space.

The ground floor offers an abundance of flexible open-plan accommodation, centred around a superb kitchen/breakfast/dining/family room and an additional playroom. Features include original stripped wooden doors, skylights, slate flooring with underfloor heating, and a contemporary freestanding wood-burning stove. The beautifully appointed kitchen is fitted with a large Rangemaster cooker and provides excellent space for cooking and entertaining around the central island. A separate utility room offers direct access to the garden.

Carpeted stairs lead to the first floor, where a large skylight fills the landing with natural light. The spacious principal bedroom benefits from a dressing area and a contemporary en-suite bathroom. There are two further generous double bedrooms, one with an en-suite shower room and both feature extensive built-in wardrobes. A fourth bedroom currently used as a small double, provides additional accommodation. The family bathroom is beautifully presented with a modern white suite.

Outside, the rear garden is predominantly laid to lawn with high hedging affording privacy and a patio area perfect for outdoor dining. At the end of the garden a superb garden studio with heating and air conditioning provides a perfect home office or gym.

To the front, the property benefits from off-street parking for two vehicles and an electric vehicle charging point.
