An immaculate two-bedroom apartment, ideally situated within the sought-after Penn Place development in the town centre, comes to the market for the first time in 23 years.

This beautiful, well-maintained home has a stunning south facing balcony on the fifth floor and offers far-reaching views and an abundance of natural light throughout.

The property has a generous entrance hall with a coat cupboard and additional cupboard housing the electric boiler.

The elegant sitting room provides ample space for living, entertaining and dining, with sliding doors to the private patio.

There are two generous double bedrooms, the principal bedroom has an en-suite shower room, while the other benefits from bespoke Sharps fitted wardrobes.

The recently updated fitted kitchen is well appointed with integrated appliances, stylish matt finish base and wall units, metro tiles and a granite worktop.

Completing the accommodation is a well-presented family bathroom with a white suite and shower over the bath.

The secure gated development of Penn Place remains popular with first time buyers, commuters and those looking to down-size.

There is one allocated parking space, a communal gymnasium on site, a concierge service, a lift providing access to the apartment and an entry system for visitors for added convenience.

LOCATION

This property enjoys access to Rickmansworth town centre, with its selection of schools and shops. For the commuter, Rickmansworth has its own railway station, which provides a Metropolitan Line/Chiltern Railways service into London. For those who drive, there is access to the M25 at Junctions 17 and 18. Schooling for children of all ages is available within the district. Leisure facilities are numerous, including several well-known golf courses, such as nearby Moor Park and The Grove. The 100 acre Aquadrome consisting of three lakes, grassland and woodland provides an ideal location for walking, cycling, fishing and numerous watersports.
