Guide Price £330,000

Positioned along the charming Ferndale Road, this exquisite ground-floor maisonette masterfully marries 1930s character with high-end contemporary flair.

The journey begins with striking herringbone flooring and original stripped-back hardwood doors, warmed by the vintage aesthetic of elegant column radiators. A light-drenched lounge, anchored by a classic bay window, offers a sophisticated space to unwind. At the same time, the chef's kitchen serves as a luxurious centerpiece featuring stone worktops and seamlessly integrated appliances.

The bedroom acts as a private sanctuary, refined by bespoke cabinetry and timeless plantation shutters. Beyond the interior lies a sprawling outdoor narrative rarely found in properties of this kind: a secluded rear garden oasis surrounded by mature greenery, a lush front garden, and a versatile side plot with a private driveway. The detached garage provides practical power, yet the true hidden gem is the charming summerhouse—a creative retreat currently utilized as an art studio and home bar, though easily reimagined as a professional home office or gym.

Perfectly placed for the modern commuter, you are situated just 0.7 miles from Ashford station for direct London Waterloo access, with the M25 and Heathrow reachable in minutes. This is far more than a residence; it is a curated lifestyle opportunity for discerning first-time buyers or downsizers seeking a home that truly stands apart from the average.

An internal viewing is essential to capture the full scale of this remarkable offering.
