24a Windsor Street Chertsey, KT16 8AS

£1,550 PCM

Nestled right in the heart of Chertsey's historic conservation area, this exceptional Grade II listed apartment on Windsor Street effortlessly blends historic character with refined charm.

The property features two generous double bedrooms, with the master boasting an original character fireplace that lends a sense of timeless elegance. At the center of the home, a vast west-facing lounge framed by four beautiful sash windows bathes the space in natural light throughout the afternoon and evening. This is thoughtfully paired with a bespoke built-in study area that creates a seamless home office or creative space.

A separate country-style kitchen offers a charming setting for cooking and entertaining. A substantial hallway storage cupboard provides excellent practicality, keeping the living areas entirely uncluttered.

Available on a flexible furnished or unfurnished basis, this home sits moments from vibrant local shops, independent eateries, and everyday amenities, presenting a rare opportunity to enjoy quintessential period living in a prime town-centre setting.
