Beautiful four bedroom house with rare garden development opportunity in Woodgrange Estate Conservation Area.

Nestled in the heart of Forest Gate's highly sought-after Woodgrange Estate stands this immaculately presented double-fronted Victorian villa with a side annex offering the perfect blend of period charm and contemporary living whilst being. Beautiful original features have been thoughtfully preserved and paired with stylish modern décor, creating a wonderful family home full of character and elegance.

To the front of the property is off-street parking for two vehicles, alongside a central Victorian tiled pathway leading to the original front door. The welcoming entrance hallway provides access to all ground floor rooms, with stairs ascending to the first floor. The front reception room is a stunning living space, showcasing original cornicing and original hardwood flooring with large wooden sash bay windows that flood the room with natural light. Tastefully decorated throughout, the room offers ample living space and flows seamlessly into a versatile adjoining snug area, ideal as a home office, study or playroom. The snug itself is bright and airy, benefitting from a large window and skylight, further enhancing the sense of light and space. The kitchen/diner is equally impressive, offering generous proportions and a striking décor scheme.

Entering the kitchen/diner the elegant cornicing continues throughout, while a sash window to the front and an original open fireplace add further charm and character. The kitchen area features charcoal-black base units with walnut stave work surfaces, marble tiled backsplash and integrated Neff appliances, including an induction hob, extractor hood, oven and fridge freezer. Original cupboards have been cleverly utilised to create additional pantry and breakfast storage. A rear door provides direct access to the garden, while quirky serving hatches add a unique touch. Accessed from the dining area, the side annex has been meticulously designed to meet the needs of modern family living. It houses a practical utility room with eye and base-level units, wooden worktops, a sink unit, space for freestanding appliances and excellent storage. A door to the front provides external access. To the rear of the annex is a beautifully finished shower room featuring striking wall and floor finishes, a low-level W/C, floating vanity sink unit and a walk-in shower cubicle.

Stepping outside, the beautifully maintained south-facing garden extends approximately 100ft and begins with a paved patio area, perfect for outdoor dining and entertaining. Beyond this lies a generous lawn area, complemented by a pond and an attractive array of shrubs and flowers. To the rear, a gate provides access onto Osborne Road. A particularly unique feature of this property is the approved planning permission with approximately one year remaining before expiry to construct a two-storey house within the garden offering a rare development opportunity within the conservation area. Drawings and plans can be made available to prospective purchasers wishing to explore this exciting opportunity further.

Ascending to the first-floor landing, a large picture window overlooks the rear garden and fills the space with natural light. The first floor offers three spacious double bedrooms, all beautifully presented with tasteful décor, original timber floorboards with ample space for furniture and wardrobes. A fourth single bedroom provides an ideal nursery, home office, or study space adding further versatility for families or professionals working from home. The family bathroom has also been finished to a high specification, with microcrete wall finish, ceramic tiled floor, bath with overhead shower, WC and basin with pillar tap on a timber vanity unit. . Additionally, planning permission has been approved to convert the loft into an additional bedroom with a study area, offering excellent potential for further expansion.
