Sympathetically and extensively renovated over the last four years of ownership to create modern interiors with period touches, this stunning country cottage offers spacious accommodation with a large kitchen diner leading to the living room and to the utility room. The stairwell from the utility room leads up to the first-floor landing, which provides access to four double bedrooms (one with an en-suite) and the family bathroom. The garden is situated on one side of the property, offering a mixture of trees, plants, shrubs and trees, plus there is an area of hardstanding towards the rear of the property which hosts a range of outbuildings.

Situated in a rural location, just off Calbourne Road, 2 South Cottages enjoys a delightfully tranquil and peaceful location, just a short drive from the village pub, The Sun Inn. Calbourne is one of the most unspoilt villages on the Island with a green at its centre which sits beside an ancient church dating back to 826AD and the island's famous and picturesque Winkle Street. An idyllic location, but also convenient, with the principal town of Newport just over five miles away, which has a wide range of shops and amenities, as well as cultural events including the vibrant Quay Arts Centre. The sailing towns of Cowes and Yarmouth are a short drive away, and both benefit from mainland ferry links. The rugged coastline of the West Wight can be reached within a fifteen-minute drive, which offers miles of coastal footpaths and unspoilt beaches.
