ACCOMMODATION

Coates House is a charming brick-and-flint detached period home, parts of which date to the 19th century. With mature landscaped gardens and a generous paddock, it is set down a quiet lane in a rural location.

The meandering gravel driveway leads to parking several cars in front of the detached double garage. A path will take you through the gardens to the front porch, with a part-glazed front door. The tiled entrance porch has a further door leading into the entrance hall with stairs leading to the first floor.

The sitting room has windows on three aspects, a Victorian-style cast-iron fireplace with tiled slips, and French doors which open into the adjoining conservatory with its garden views, ceramic tiled floor, low-level wall mounted heaters and doors to the garden.

The snug/study has fitted shelves and windows on two aspects.

The country kitchen/breakfast room has exposed beams, a Godin solid fuel stove in a brick inglenook fireplace, and ample space for a kitchen table and glazed French doors opening to the conservatory. There are windows on three aspects, a range of timber fronted wall and base units with an inset 1 1/2 bowl sink unit, a tiled floor, and an oil Aga (which provides hot water) with tiled splashback. A wooden door opens into the pantry which has a tiled floor, fitted shelves and space for a free-standing fridge-freezer.

The generous dining room has windows on three aspects, and French doors out to the front garden. A hatch in the floor opens to steps leading down to the wine cellar, with fitted shelving and lights.

From the inner hall a door opens to the boot room / utility room, with a wash hand basin, w.c., the oil fired central heating boiler and a glazed door opens to outside.

The staircase leads from the entrance hall to the first-floor landing, with a loft access and two storage cupboards.

The principal bedroom is a bright and generous double bedroom with a trio of windows, with fitted wardrobes. The en suite bathroom has a white suite comprising a bath, a w.c., a wash-hand basin, a corner shower and a bidet.

Bedroom 2 is a generous double with ample natural light,. The en suite bathroom has a white suite comprising a roll-top bath, a w.c., and a wash-hand basin.

Bedroom 3 is a double with a fitted wardrobe and countryside views.

Bedroom 4 is a small double with countryside views.

The family bathroom with a freestanding roll-top bath, a w.c, a bidet, a wash-hand basin and a heated towel rail (from the AGA).

OUTSIDE

The detached double garage is located on the front driveway, with a pair of barn-style doors with light and power. A side door leads to the guest accommodation, which could be used as a reception room or a bedroom with en suite shower room.

The gardens associated with the house are a particular feature, with mature and attractive planting and specimen trees, copious espaliered fruit trees, well-maintained lawns, sweeping tranches of spring bulbs and a well-established vegetable patch. There is a large sunken rainwater harvesting cistern providing water to taps around the garden.

From the garden, a 5-bar gate leads to the enclosed paddock, which is an equestrian field, with a large equestrian shed with a water tap, and has both field views and a border fringed by trees.

LOCATION

Living in Swyncombe

Swyncombe is a charming hamlet set in the Chiltern Hills, a designated area of outstanding natural beauty. The village has an excellent rural community, the centre of which is St Botolph's church.

The market town of Watlington is only about 4 miles from the property, as is Wallingford. Both boast an array of national brand shops and boutique local stores.

Henley is approximately 6 miles away and offers a wide range of shops, boutiques and art galleries, a three-screen cinema, theatre and good restaurants. The town comes alive in the summer months with The Henley Royal Regatta and The Henley Festival, the Henley Literary Festival later in the year and several venues which host live music on a regular basis.

Stonor Park is a few short miles away, playing host to many popular events throughout the year including a Craft fair, a Proms, jousting tournaments and sports car meet-ups. The small market town of Watlington is approximately 4 miles north of Russells Water, offering local shops, pubs, restaurants and a market.

Swyncombe has an active cricket club. Recreational facilities include walking, cycling and horse riding in the Chiltern Hills. Maidensgrove Common is a marvellous space for dog walking and kite flying. The Ridgeway is less than 4 miles from the house, providing a vast and scenic backdrop.

There are many good village pubs close by, notably The Five Horseshoes at Maidensgrove, the popular Fox and Hounds at Christmas Common, and The Golden Ball at Lower Assendon. Nettlebed, 3 miles away, has a Budgens supermarket, a popular deli, The White Hart pub and social club, as well as the Nettlebed Cheese Shed - a destination for walkers and lovers of cheese toasties.

The commuter is well provided for with the M40 (approx 7 miles) giving access to London, Heathrow, Oxford and the Midlands. Henley Station (6 miles) has direct links with London Paddington 55 minutes, and a direct connection to the Elizabeth Line (Crossrail) at Twyford. The 'Oxford Tube' coach service collects commuters at Lewknor (7 miles away) and drives into London Victoria on a regularly scheduled service.
