Built in 1986, this home—set on the largest plot in this quiet cul-de-sac—has been cherished by one family since new. Over the years, it has evolved to suit their changing needs, which is one of the main appeals of 52 Pavilion Court. Both the interior and exterior offer flexible spaces that can be adapted to suit 21st-century living.

The accommodation is arranged over two floors and includes a living room, dining room, kitchen, conservatory, 2/3 bedrooms, and a shower room.

On the ground floor, you enter into an enclosed entrance hall with stairs to the first floor and a door leading to the living room and adjoining dining room. The living room features a bay window overlooking the front garden and a large log burner—perfect for cosy winter evenings. The dining room is light and airy, with access to the kitchen and conservatory, as well as useful understairs storage. The kitchen spans the length of the house, offering ample space for all appliances and generous counter space.

Upstairs, the main bedroom at the front of the property benefits from two windows and built-in storage. To the rear is a spacious second bedroom, which was originally two smaller rooms when the family had young children. They removed the partition wall to create a larger space but retained both doorways, allowing for an easy conversion back into two separate rooms—ideal for a third bedroom, home office, or hobby room. The shower room features a large corner shower, wash basin, and WC.

Externally, the property has a great deal to offer. At the front, there is a lawned area, off-road parking for two vehicles, and gated access to the rear garden. The rear garden features a variety of adaptable spaces, including extensive decking, patio and gravelled areas, a dedicated corner for a hot tub, and established herbaceous borders. Additionally, there is a secure enclosed parking area with separate access, which the current owners have used to accommodate their 26' caravan.
