The Property

4 Post Office Terrace is a charming three bedroom mid-terrace house, located in the popular village of Garth. As you enter the property you step into the hallway which leads to both reception rooms, the bathroom and has a stair to the first floor.

The first room off the hall and to the front of the property is the lounge, with a large window to the front is offers a light feel. A dining room offers a second reception room, with fitted storage cupboards. The dining room is open plan to the kitchen, which offers ample fitted wall and base units and enjoys a lovely outlook over the rear garden. Also accessed off the hall is the ground floor shower room, offering a modern white suite, with a large corner shower, WC and washbasin.

The first floor offers two double bedrooms and a generous single. From bedroom one you have a lovely view over the rear garden towards the Eppynt Hills. Bedroom two is fitted with wardrobes. Bedroom three is a generous single.

To the front of the property is an open plan gravelled garden with a brick wall to the front. The rear garden is a great space, it is mainly lawn with a paved seating area, flowering beds and borders. From the garden you enjoy a lovely rural outlook towards the hills.

The Location

The village of Garth provides a small friendly community, located approximately a 10 minute drive from the market town of Builth Wells. The rural village has a good transport network with the Heart of Wales railway line passing through and a good road network between Builth Wells, Llandoverly and Brecon. The market town of Builth Wells (Llanfair ym Maullt) is located at the heart of Powys, Mid-Wales, in what is arguably some of the most beautiful countryside in the United Kingdom. Builth Wells lies within the Historic Boundaries of Brecknockshire, situated on the banks of the River Wye and the River Irfon – The Upper section of the Wye Valley. Builth Wells is famously known for hosting the Royal Welsh Show, the biggest agricultural show in Europe attracting over 240,000 visitors to the town each year. With a population of around two and a half thousand – the positive impact this has on many local businesses located within Builth Wells is immeasurable. Builth Wells is ideally located with regard to beautiful surroundings with the Elan Valley and Brecon Beacons both just a short drive away.
