The Property

Introducing No.39 Quarry Gardens, which is a beautifully presented, end-terraced house, conveniently positioned within world-renowned Ludlow, which is surrounded by glorious Shropshire countryside and near to the Welsh/English border.

This delightful property is located within close proximity to the historic town centre where a range of independently owned shops, cafés, restaurants and leisure facilities can be found. In addition, local supermarkets and the train station are situated within approximately 150 yards, providing excellent day-to-day convenience and direct transport links for commuters.

No.39 Quarry Gardens offers well maintained and tastefully presented accommodation across two storeys, comprising 3 bedrooms, 1 bathroom, a living room and a modern kitchen/diner. The property also benefits from off road parking for multiple vehicles, far-reaching views and a landscaped, south-west facing rear garden.

Inside, the accommodation is made up on the ground floor of a fully equipped kitchen/diner, which has been finished to a modern standard with a range of fitted units, integrated appliances and ample work surface space with stairs rising off to the first floor and a living room, which features a fireplace with a wood-burning stove, creating a cosy focal point, a useful understair storage cupboard and French doors, which provide direct access out to the garden, making it an ideal space for both everyday living and entertaining. On the first floor, the landing area gives way to all 3 bedrooms and the family bathroom. Bedroom one benefits from a wall-length wardrobe and enjoys stunning views over neighbouring rooftops and towards Mortimer Forest in the distance, while the bathroom is fitted with a contemporary suite.

Outside, there is off road parking available for at least 3 vehicles, which is a rare and highly desirable feature for a home so close to the town centre. To the rear is a south-west facing landscaped garden, which has been thoughtfully arranged to include a combination of patio and decking areas, ideal for relaxing or entertaining within the warmer months of the year. The garden has lawned sections and enjoys distant countryside views, offering a wonderful sense of space and an attractive backdrop. The garden has been designed for ease of maintenance whilst remaining visually appealing. In addition, there is a useful shed/wood-store and well-defined fenced boundaries.

The Location

The quintessential British town of Ludlow is a throwback to the days gone by. You can't help but fall in love with the friendly welcoming townsfolk and the laid back lifestyle which feels a million miles away from the hustle and bustle of the big city. That's not to say that Ludlow is a quiet little backwater, far from it. Hosting the famous Ludlow Food and Drink Festival, Ludlow Spring Festival, May Fair and Ludlow Fringe, so there are events to keep you entertained all year round. There are also countless antique and local produce markets and book, craft and garden fairs. For sport lovers days out at Ludlow Racecourse, Golf Course, Rugby, Cricket, Tennis, Bowling or Football Clubs could await. Then there's the spectacular architecture and countryside that you'll never grow tired of admiring. Ludlow has to be one of the most perfect places to reside in Britain. The county town of Shrewsbury is approximately 28 miles north and the Cathedral City of Hereford is 24 miles south. Both are easily accessible by the mainline rail that runs a frequent service to Manchester, Holyhead and Cardiff from Ludlow station.
