The Property

Introducing No.4 Weeping Cross Lane, which is a well maintained, mid-terrace house, located within the historic town of Ludlow, which is surrounded by glorious Shropshire countryside and positioned close to the Welsh border. Conveniently situated approximately 500 yards from Ludlow's vibrant town centre with its many independently owned shops, eateries and facilities, this attractive home enjoys distant views to the front and benefits from landscaped front and rear gardens, a single garage and access to a private residents' car park.

Built circa late 1970s, No.4 Weeping Cross Lane offers well-proportioned accommodation arranged across two floors. In recent years the property has benefited from the installation of a combination boiler. The owner has also recently redecorated and fitted new flooring throughout, creating a home that is ready to move straight into.

Inside, the accommodation begins with an entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor. Positioned to the front of the property is the spacious living/dining room, which offers ample space for both living and dining and enjoys a pleasant outlook over the front garden. To the rear, the kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base units and has a door leading directly out to the rear garden. On the first floor, the landing area gives way to three bedrooms and the family bathroom. Bedroom one and two are spacious double rooms. The third bedroom is a comfortable single room, which could also lend itself to use as a home office or hobby room

Outside, the property is approached via a pathway leading through the landscaped front garden, which is predominantly paved and gravelled, with established planting and well-defined borders. To the rear, the garden has been thoughtfully landscaped to create an attractive and easily maintained outdoor space, incorporating paved seating areas and planted borders. The garden provides an ideal space for relaxing and entertaining during the warmer months of the year. The property also benefits from access to the private residents' parking area, as well as a single garage.

Overall, No.4 Weeping Cross Lane presents an excellent opportunity to acquire a well maintained home in one of Ludlow's most convenient residential locations. With three bedrooms, attractive gardens, garage and easy access to the town centre, the property is likely to appeal to first-time buyers, investors or those seeking a low-maintenance home within walking distance of everyday amenities.

The Location

The quintessential British town of Ludlow is a throwback to the days gone by. You can't help but fall in love with the friendly welcoming townsfolk and the laid back lifestyle which feels a million miles away from the hustle and bustle of the big city. That's not to say that Ludlow is a quiet little backwater, far from it. Hosting the famous Ludlow Food and Drink Festival, Ludlow Spring Festival, May Fair, Ludlow Fringe, Green Fair and the Medieval Christmas Fayre there are events to keep you entertained all year round. There are also countless antique and local produce markets and book, craft and garden fairs. For sport lovers days out at Ludlow Racecourse, Golf Course, Rugby, Cricket, Tennis, Bowling or Football Clubs could await. Then there's the spectacular architecture and countryside that you'll never grow tired of admiring. Ludlow has to be one of the most perfect places to reside in Britain. The county town of Shrewsbury is approximately 28 miles north and the Cathedral City of Hereford is 24 miles south. Both are easily accessible by the mainline rail that runs a frequent service to Manchester, Holyhead and Cardiff from Ludlow station.
