The Property

Introducing No.47 New Street, which is a charming, mid-terraced period property, located within the historic market town of Ludlow, surrounded by glorious Shropshire countryside and positioned approximately 0.75 miles from the vibrant town centre with its many independently owned shops, cafés, restaurants and facilities.

Situated within a popular residential area, No.47 New Street offers well-maintained accommodation throughout and is available with no onward chain. Combining character features, generous outside space and distant countryside views from the first floor, this delightful home could be ideal for first time buyers, downsizers, investors or those seeking a buy-to-let opportunity within one of Shropshire's most desirable towns.

Inside, the accommodation spans across 2 floors and has been thoughtfully maintained by the current owners. The front door opens into a welcoming living room, which enjoys plenty of natural light and features an attractive brick fireplace, creating a warm and inviting focal point. Leading through to the rear of the property is the kitchen/dining room, fitted with a range of base and wall units, work surfaces and space for appliances, whilst also offering ample room for dining and entertaining. A rear door provides direct access out to the garden and stairs rise up to the first floor.

On the first floor, the landing area gives way to the bathroom and both bedrooms. Bedroom one is a generous double room positioned to the front of the property, enjoying distant countryside views, while the second bedroom enjoys a pleasant outlook over the rear garden. The bathroom is fitted with a matching suite comprising bath with shower over, wash basin and W.C.

Outside, the property benefits from a sizeable, south-west facing rear garden which is a particularly attractive feature of the home. The garden is predominantly laid to lawn with established borders, mature planting and a number of seating areas positioned to enjoy the surroundings. A paved patio adjoining the rear of the property provides the perfect space for outdoor dining and relaxation during the warmer months of the year. A useful garden store further enhances the practicality of the outside space. There is no designated parking, however there is unrestricted parking directly out front on New Street.

Overall, No.47 New Street presents an excellent opportunity to acquire a well maintained home, combining character, generous outside space and a highly convenient location close to both town amenities and countryside walks. With no onward chain, this charming property is sure to appeal to a wide range of purchasers looking to enjoy all that Ludlow has to offer.

The Location

The quintessential British town of Ludlow is a throwback to the days gone by. You can't help but fall in love with the friendly welcoming townsfolk and the laid back lifestyle which feels a million miles away from the hustle and bustle of the big city. That's not to say that Ludlow is a quiet little backwater, far from it. Hosting the famous Ludlow Food and Drink Festival, Ludlow Spring Festival, May Fair, Ludlow Fringe and Green Fair, there are events to keep you entertained all year round. There are also countless antique and local produce markets and book, craft and garden fairs. For sport lovers days out at Ludlow Racecourse, Golf Course, Rugby, Cricket, Tennis, Bowling or Football Clubs could await. Then there's the spectacular architecture and countryside that you'll never grow tired of admiring. Ludlow has to be one of the most perfect places to reside in Britain. The county town of Shrewsbury is approximately 28 miles north and the Cathedral City of Hereford is 24 miles south. Both are easily accessible by the mainline rail that runs a frequent service to Manchester, Holyhead and Cardiff from Ludlow station.
