The Property

Set in a truly exceptional position just outside the village of Mochdre, Hyde Park offers space, privacy, and potential in equal measure. With far-reaching views, approximately 12 acres of gardens, woodland and paddocks, and outbuildings including a detached studio and large barn, this is a rare opportunity to secure a property with genuine scope - both inside and out.

The house was built in the 1980s and has been loved by the same family since. It's been their dream home, and now it's time for someone new to make it theirs.

Accommodation is arranged over two floors. The main entrance hall leads into a generous country kitchen, fitted with Siematic units and an oil-fired Rayburn which also heats the water. A shower room and WC sit just off the kitchen, and a bright conservatory offers extra space to relax and enjoy the garden throughout the seasons.

To the rear of the house are two substantial reception rooms, both with log burners and sliding doors opening out onto the elevated patio. These are flexible, sociable rooms - ideal for entertaining or simply enjoying the quiet, open surroundings. Throughout the ground floor, the original parquet flooring and large windows create a strong sense of warmth and light.

There are four bedrooms in total - three on the ground floor, served by a well-fitted family bathroom with walk-in shower, bath, WC and basin. Upstairs is a large, versatile fourth bedroom, currently used as guest accommodation but with the potential to become a generous master suite with dressing room and en-suite.

Outside is where Hyde Park truly comes into its own. The gardens are mature, well-structured and full of interest: terraced beds, wildflower areas, lawns, patios, multiple greenhouses, a pergola, two ponds, a summer house, and a productive orchard with fruit trees. The south-facing position means this is a home that catches the light all day - and the views from almost every part of the garden are uninterrupted and far-reaching.

Tucked just beyond the formal garden lies one of the property's most remarkable features: a private area of established woodland. It's peaceful, well-tended, and genuinely beautiful - a place to walk, pause, and disconnect. Whether it's for quiet walks, the best ever game of hide and seek, or simply a breath of fresh air, the woodland adds something truly special. A former pigsty still sits quietly within it, a reminder of the property's rural character and the lifestyle it can offer.

In addition to the garden and woodland, the land includes three good-sized paddocks, ideal for grazing, ponies, a smallholding or outdoor hobbies. The grounds offer scope, privacy and potential in equal measure.

At the bottom of the drive, you'll find two further key assets: a detached studio building - previously used as a photography space with darkroom, and suitable for a wide range of uses (home office, guest accommodation or potential holiday let, subject to permissions). Next to it, a large outbuilding is currently divided into two bays and offers excellent workshop or storage space. Both buildings benefit from easy access and plentiful off-road parking, making them highly practical as well as full of potential.

Spacious, peaceful, and rich in possibility, Hyde Park is the kind of property that rarely comes to market - and even more rarely stays there for long.

The Location

Mochdre is a small rural village located just over three miles west of Newtown in Powys, Mid Wales. Surrounded by open countryside, farmland, and wooded hills, the village offers a peaceful setting while still being within easy reach of key amenities and transport routes. The community includes a mix of traditional and modern homes, and enjoys a quiet, spacious environment typical of the Mid Wales landscape.

One of the village's key features is The Dolau Inn, a well-known local pub and restaurant, popular with both residents and visitors. It offers a relaxed atmosphere, food, and regular events, helping to support a sense of community within the area.

Just a short drive away, Newtown provides a wide range of services including supermarkets, independent shops, cafés, medical centres, and leisure facilities. The town is also home to several schools and Newtown College, offering further education and training options. A mainline railway station connects Newtown to Shrewsbury, the Midlands, and beyond, making the area suitable for commuters or those needing regular access to larger towns and cities.

The nearby A489 gives convenient road access in both directions—eastwards to Welshpool and Shrewsbury, and westwards to Machynlleth and the coast. Mochdre's location is ideal for those who enjoy the outdoors, with walking routes, bridleways, and cycling opportunities all close by.

This combination of rural charm, access to services, and strong transport links makes Mochdre a practical and appealing location for a wide range of buyers, including those looking to relocate, invest, or enjoy a quieter pace of life without being cut off from day-to-day needs.
