The Property

The Old Saw Mill is a detached family home in a central village position, full of natural light and with a layout that genuinely works for modern living. The current owners have already made great progress including a beautifully refurbished downstairs WC so a huge amount of the work is already done. With no ongoing chain, the move can be straightforward.

A very spacious entrance hall creates an immediate sense of welcome and scale. To the right is the main sitting room, a generous and airy space that stretches from the front of the house to the back. A log burning stove anchors the room and multiple windows bring in plenty of daylight.

To the left, the kitchen and dining room span the full length of the house. It is a bright, sociable space with room for a large dining table and seating area. French doors open directly onto the garden which makes this a perfect everyday hub for family life and entertaining. A second log burner brings warmth and character. The utility room and upgraded ground floor WC sit conveniently between the two main living areas.

Upstairs the accommodation continues to impress. The master bedroom is a superb size and a real stand out feature, offering the sort of space usually seen in much larger properties. It benefits from its own ensuite shower room and a large adjoining dressing room. The dressing room would also make an ideal nursery or dedicated home office for those working from home. There are two further well proportioned double bedrooms along with useful built in storage on the landing.

The garden is enclosed and family friendly, with lawn and patio providing space to relax, play and enjoy outdoor dining in the warmer months. Being right in the middle of the village means you can walk to local amenities while still having your own private green space.

The Old Saw Mill offers excellent room sizes, lots of natural light, two log burners, generous storage and a footprint that is ready to finish to your own taste. It already feels warm, practical and full of potential and its central village location and no ongoing chain add real convenience.

Viewings are strongly recommended to appreciate the space, light and opportunity this appealing family home has to offer.

The Location

Bettws Cedewain is one of the most sought-after villages in Montgomeryshire, well-regarded for its strong community, attractive setting, and convenient location. Nestled in the Severn Valley just three miles from Newtown, the village combines the charm of rural life with excellent access to larger towns and transport links.

The village itself has a welcoming and active atmosphere. At its centre is the traditional Bull & Heifer pub, alongside a well-supported village hall which hosts community events and activities. The surrounding lanes, farmland, and wooded hills provide a beautiful setting for walking and outdoor pursuits. Bettws is also known as the home of Bettws Hall, a world-renowned sporting estate, which adds to the village's wider reputation. Nearby is Gregynog Hall, a historic house and estate famed for its gardens, concerts, and cultural events, which is open to the public and contributes to the area's appeal.

Families are well-served for education locally. The nearest primary school is Ysgol Rhiw Bechan, located just outside the village, while secondary education is available at Newtown High School, with further options in Llanfair Caereinion and Welshpool. For further education, Newtown College provides a wide range of courses and training opportunities.

The nearby market town of Newtown offers supermarkets, shops, restaurants, cafés, medical facilities, as well as the Robert Owen Museum and Theatr Hafren for cultural and leisure activities. The historic town of Welshpool lies around 10 miles to the north, while the university town of Aberystwyth on the coast is just over an hour's drive away.

Despite its rural setting, Bettws Cedewain is well-connected. Local bus services run through the village, and Newtown railway station on the Cambrian Line provides direct trains to Shrewsbury and the West Midlands in one direction, and to Machynlleth and the Cambrian Coast in the other. The A483 and A458 give convenient road links to Shrewsbury, Chester, and beyond.

With its thriving community, enviable location, and excellent connections, Bettws Cedewain remains one of the most desirable villages in Mid Wales to call home.
