Contemporary Living in the Heart of Historic Leek

This stylish two-bedroom terraced home forms part of an exclusive new development, ideally located in the vibrant heart of the historic market town of Leek, Staffordshire. Thoughtfully designed and built by a reputable local developer, the property has been tastefully finished to combine the character of its original structure with the comfort and style of modern open-plan living.

Boasting period charm alongside contemporary convenience, the home features a beautifully presented living area with standout elements such as an exposed brick chimney breast, natural-style wooden flooring, and uPVC sash-style windows. The open-plan layout flows seamlessly into a modern kitchen fitted with ample navy wall and base units, wood-effect worktops, classic white tiling, integrated appliances, and inset spotlighting—perfectly balancing style and practicality. A door from the kitchen provides access to the rear of the property.

Upstairs, the accommodation comprises two well-proportioned bedrooms and a sleek shower room, offering a comfortable and functional layout ideal for modern living.

Externally, the property benefits from off-road parking to the rear, providing both convenience and peace of mind.

Location

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages

The location offers excellent access to the Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

The nearest train stations to Leek are Stoke-on-Trent (12 miles), Macclesfield (13 miles) and Buxton (13 miles), providing direct services to Manchester, Sheffield and London in around 95 minutes.
