Denise White Agent Comments

Where Heritage Meets Modern Living

Positioned in the heart of Leek's vibrant market town, this beautifully updated two-bedroom terraced home offers the ideal blend of timeless character and contemporary style.

Thoughtfully designed and built by a reputable local developer, the property has been finished to a high standard, preserving elements of its original charm while embracing modern living. The ground floor features a welcoming front lounge, a separate dining area at the rear, and a well-appointed kitchen with French doors opening out to the rear courtyard.

Upstairs, the main bedroom offers generous proportions, while the second bedroom is perfectly suited as a home office, nursery, or dressing room. A sleek and stylish shower room completes the upper level, offering a practical layout tailored to modern lifestyles.

Perfect for professionals, couples, or those looking to downsize without compromise, this home offers both style and convenience in one of Staffordshire's most desirable locations

Location

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages

The location offers excellent access to the Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

The nearest train stations to Leek are Stoke-on-Trent (12 miles), Macclesfield (13 miles) and Buxton (13 miles), providing direct services to Manchester, Sheffield and London in around 95 minutes.
