'The colours and design of a home should be a reflection of the people who live inside.' - Amy Wax

A cosy and welcoming three bedroom situated on the outskirts of the vibrant town centre of Leek. With well presented accommodation throughout including a cosy multi fuel stove and modern style kitchen, this home is the perfect space to create your dream home.

Denise White Estate Agent Comments

A beautifully presented three bedroom mid terrace property located on the outskirts of the popular market town of Leek. Just a two minute walk from Pickwood Park and a 6 minute walk from the town centre, this home is perfect for those looking to be within walking distance from a range of local amenities whilst remaining close to open green spaces.

Internally the property offers well presented accommodation with the added benefits of a cosy multifuel stove to the living room creating an immediate welcoming environment. The spacious dining room is open to a well appointed modern kitchen located at the rear of the property and also features tongue and groove panelling.

Stairs from the dining room lead to the first floor accommodation where you will find three bedrooms, two of which are spacious doubles. The third room is a good sized single, ideal for a child's bedroom or could be used as an office space for those who work remotely and provides access via a pull down loft ladder to a spacious boarded loft storage area. A light and airy bathroom boasts a fitted bath and separate shower to suit both preferences.

Externally the property features a lovely raised lawn area ideal for sitting out in the warmer summer months and features a large shed ideal for storage of gardening tools or outside toys.

In summary, this lovely home provides beautiful accommodation throughout and a pleasant outdoors space. This property is ideal for First Time Buyers looking to make their first step on to the property ladder or young families who require more space. Don't miss the opportunity to acquire a cosy three bedroom property on the outskirts of the town centre.

Location

Situated on the outskirts of the town centre a 2 minute walk from the entrance to Pickwood Park.

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages

The location offers excellent access to the Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

The nearest train stations to Leek are Stoke-on-Trent (12 miles), Macclesfield (13 miles) and Buxton (13 miles), providing direct services to Manchester, Sheffield and London in around 95 minutes.
