Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Built in 1880, this traditional Victorian terraced house is brimming with period character, boasting high ceilings, bay windows and picture rails. Located in a highly regarded residential area of Leek's sought-after west end, perfectly positioned within walking distance of local shops, hairdressers, eateries and well-regarded schools. Leek's vibrant town centre is just a short stroll away, as is the rolling Staffordshire Moorlands countryside, offering the best of both town and country living.

The ground floor welcomes you via an Entrance Hall which leads on to the Lounge and Dining Room. The Lounge is positioned to the front aspect and enhanced by a traditional bay window which allows natural light to flood the room. The Dining Room is positioned to the rear aspect and leads on to a well-planned kitchen, which adjoins a useful utility room with WC.

The first floor offers two good sized double bedrooms, alongside a large family bathroom which leads through to a separate washroom. From the landing, stairs rise to an attic bedroom where you'll find exposed brickwork and characterful beams.

Externally, the property benefits from a private rear yard, recently landscaped with Indian stone paving and an artificial lawn – ideal for low-maintenance outdoor enjoyment.

Location

Conveniently located within walking distance of the Centre of the Market Town of Leek.

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages
