Denise Whites Comments

We are pleased to present the Leek Antique Centre, a substantial three-story building currently divided into two retail shops and a one-bedroom flat on the first floor.

**Retail Spaces:****

**First Retail Shop:** Trading as the Leek Antique Centre, this shop encompasses the ground, first, and second floors. It features versatile expansive space which we believe used to be two town houses with an extension added on the rear aspect to extend the accommodation. Internal access can be gained into the second retail premises.

**Second Retail Shop:** Currently rented and operating as an antique and bric-a-brac shop, this space offers ample ground floor area with access to a W.C.

**Residential Flat:****

The first-floor flat is well-appointed, featuring an open-plan lounge and kitchen on the first floor, with a bedroom and bathroom located on the second floor.

**External Features:****

The property includes off-road parking accessible from the side, enhancing convenience for both retail customers and residents.

**Development Potential:****

This property presents significant potential for new purchasers, offering options to continue its current usage or to transform it into alternative retail spaces or residential units, subject to obtaining necessary planning consents.

**Location Benefits:****

Situated in the historic town of Leek, known for its Victorian and Georgian architecture, the property is ideally located at the gateway to the Peak District

National Park, attracting substantial tourist traffic. With a population of approximately 21,000, Leek enjoys a mix of tourism, local commerce, and service industries, making it an appealing destination for both business and residential living.

This versatile property is suited for a variety of uses, providing an excellent investment opportunity, subject to gaining and necessary planning consents.

Location

Known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages
