Denise White Agent Comments

A spacious three-bedroom town house offers versatile accommodation arranged over three floors. Upon entering the property, you are welcomed directly into a good size living room, with a log burner. To the rear, a generous kitchen offers ample space, with the added benefit of a separate utility room for everyday convenience.

The first floor comprises a bright and spacious principal bedroom, a further well-proportioned third bedroom which would also suit use as a home office, and a family bathroom finalises this floor.

The second floor hosts a light and airy second bedroom of a good size, alongside a loft room currently utilised for storage. Subject to the necessary planning permissions, this space offers potential for conversion into a fourth bedroom or additional living area.

This home features flexible living space, making it an ideal choice for families or buyers seeking room to grow with great scope to improve and develop to cater for your own requirements and style.

Location

The market town of Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.
