Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Set along the ever-popular Ash Bank Road, this attractive three-bedroom detached 1930s home offers a wonderful blend of period charm, generous proportions and thoughtful modern updates.

The property is approached via a dual-access paved driveway and immediately impresses with its handsome front elevation. A practical front porch, complete with striking original Minton tile checkerboard flooring and a stylish composite door, provides ideal space for storing coats and shoes. From here, a beautiful stained-glass internal door opens into a welcoming entrance hall where bespoke wall panelling and a picture rail hint at the home's rich heritage.

To the front of the property sits a well-proportioned dining room, featuring an open fire and an elegant bay window with stained-glass detailing—perfect for both everyday family meals and entertaining. To the rear, the spacious living room enjoys views across the garden beyond and opens via French doors onto a large rear patio. A cosy log burner with brick surround creates a warm and inviting atmosphere, making the space enjoyable all year round.

The kitchen has been updated by the current owner and now offers a stylish shaker-style design with integrated appliances and a useful pantry cupboard providing additional storage. Beyond the kitchen, a rear porch gives access to a downstairs WC and utility area, along with direct access out to the rear patio.

Upstairs, there are three bedrooms. The principal bedroom benefits from fitted wardrobes and lovely open views across fields to the rear. The second is a generous double bedroom with a large bay window to the front, while the third is a single room, ideal as a child's bedroom or home office, featuring a charming stained-glass window. All bedrooms are served by a beautiful family bathroom with freestanding bath and separate shower, alongside a separate WC, ideal for busy family life. A large boarded loft with lighting, accessed from the landing, provides excellent additional storage.

Externally, the property continues to impress. There is a garage with electric front door and a rear door opening onto the patio. Access is available to both sides of the house, leading to a spacious rear patio overlooking a sizeable lawned garden below. Beneath the patio is a particularly useful storage area, perfect for housing gardening equipment.

A characterful and well-maintained home in a highly sought-after location, offering space, charm and practicality in equal measure.
