Denise White Agent Comments

This charming three-bedroom terraced home offers a slightly different and characterful layout compared to many properties of its type, presenting an excellent opportunity for buyers looking to add their own personal touch.

Upon entering the property, you are welcomed by an entrance hallway featuring attractive Minton tiled flooring, setting the tone for the character found throughout the home. The hallway leads through to a dining area which flows in an open-plan style into the lounge, creating a sociable and versatile living space. The lounge benefits from exposed wooden flooring and a cosy log burner, providing a warm focal point.

From the dining area there is access to the kitchen, which offers a practical space for the new owners.

To the first floor, the landing again showcases exposed wooden flooring and leads to a generously sized family bathroom. Bedroom one is also located on this floor and features a charming fireplace and further exposed wooden flooring, along with the added benefit of useful understairs storage.

Stairs rise to the second floor where two further well-proportioned double bedrooms can be found, both offering comfortable accommodation.

Externally, the property benefits from a small enclosed courtyard to the rear with a useful storage outhouse.

Location

Known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.
