A well-proportioned mid-terrace property located on the outskirts of the town centre ideal for first time buyers or individuals wishing to add their own style to a two-bedroom well-proportioned home.

Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Situated on the outskirts of the town centre, this well-proportioned two-bedroom mid-terrace property offers an exciting opportunity for first-time buyers or investors looking to add their own stamp. The home combines character features with spacious accommodation and excellent potential.

To the ground floor, the property boasts a generously sized living room featuring an attractive exposed brick wall that adds warmth and character. To the rear, a spacious dining room seamlessly flows into a fitted kitchen with modern gloss cabinets and direct access to a paved rear yard.

Upstairs, the home offers two good-sized bedrooms and a separate bathroom, providing practical and comfortable living space.

Externally, the property benefits from two useful store rooms and a traditional outside WC, adding further storage and convenience.

Located within walking distance of local amenities and the town centre, this property is ideal for those seeking a well-located home with scope for improvement. Early viewing is highly recommended.

Location

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages

The location offers excellent access to the Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

The nearest train stations to Leek are Stoke-on-Trent (12 miles), Macclesfield (13 miles) and Buxton (13 miles), providing direct services to Manchester, Sheffield and London in around 95 minutes.

Anti-Money Laundering & ID Checks

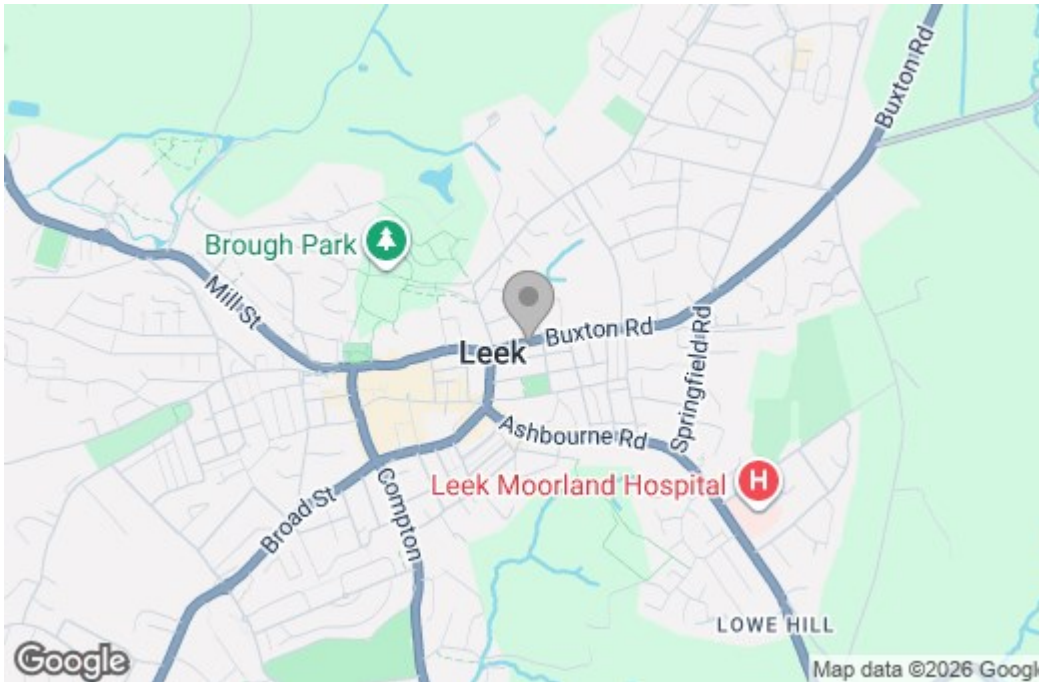

Once an offer is accepted on a property marketed by Denise White Estate Agents we are required to complete ID verification checks on all buyers and to apply ongoing monitoring until the transaction ends. Whilst this is the responsibility of Denise White Estate Agents we may use the services of Guild365, to verify Clients' identity. This is not a credit check and therefore will have no effect on your credit history. You agree for us to complete these checks, and the cost of these checks is £30.00 inc. VAT per buyer. This is paid in advance, when an offer is agreed and prior to a sales memorandum being issued. This charge is non-refundable.
