Denise White Agent Comments

This immaculately presented four-bedroom terraced townhouse on the ever-popular Barngate Street offers deceptively spacious accommodation arranged over three floors and has been thoughtfully renovated by the current owner to an exceptional standard throughout.

Upon entering the property, you are immediately welcomed by an inviting entrance hallway featuring attractive parquet flooring and elegant part-panelled walls, setting the tone for the stylish accommodation beyond. To the front aspect is a cosy yet charming lounge, benefiting from a box bay window that fills the room with natural light and creates a warm and inviting atmosphere.

Leading through from the hallway is the well-proportioned dining room, a versatile family space perfectly suited to both everyday living and entertaining. A striking exposed brick fireplace creates an attractive focal point, whilst a useful storage cupboard provides practical space and is currently utilised as a drinks storage area by the owner.

To the rear of the property is the beautifully appointed kitchen, enjoying an abundance of natural light courtesy of a skylight window. The addition of a stable door leading to the rear garden adds both character and practicality. Completing the ground floor accommodation is a convenient downstairs WC.

To the first floor, the principal bedroom is a generously sized room overlooking the front elevation and features exposed brick detailing, adding further charm and character. Bedroom four has been thoughtfully adapted by the current owner into a dressing room with fitted wardrobes but could equally serve as a home office or nursery. The stylish family bathroom completes the first-floor accommodation.

The second floor provides two further well-proportioned double bedrooms, both offering excellent versatility. Bedroom two benefits from useful eaves storage, whilst bedroom three enjoys an over-stairs storage cupboard.

Externally, the property continues to impress with a thoughtfully designed rear garden, creating an ideal space for relaxing and entertaining.

An internal inspection is highly recommended to fully appreciate the quality of finish, character features and deceptively spacious accommodation this beautiful home has to offer.

Location

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.
