"Location creates opportunity, opportunity creates value"

Prime town centre mixed-use investment opportunity comprising three prominent retail spaces offered with vacant possession, together with three first-floor bedsits providing an immediate rental income. Excellent footfall, generous accommodation and scope for future improvement.

Denise White Estate Agents Comments

An excellent opportunity to acquire a substantial mixed-use investment property occupying a prime and highly prominent position within Leek town centre, benefiting from exceptional levels of daily footfall and strong visibility.

The property comprises three spacious ground floor retail units, each benefiting from its own kitchenette and WC facilities, together with three first-floor bedsits which are being sold with sitting tenants in situ, providing an immediate rental income stream from completion. The retail premises will be sold with vacant possession, offering purchasers the flexibility to occupy the premises themselves, re-let them or explore alternative commercial uses, subject to any necessary consents.

The retail accommodation benefits from large glazed window frontages, providing excellent display opportunities and ensuring the premises enjoy a high level of visibility to passing pedestrians. The combination of prominent positioning, versatile commercial accommodation and residential income makes this an attractive proposition for investors seeking an established mixed-use asset.

Unit 16 comprises two generous shop spaces, each having a useful rear store room, kitchenette and WC facilities. To the rear of each shop is a covered yard/storage area, providing valuable additional storage space.

Unit 18 provides a further sizeable retail space, together with a basement storage room, small kitchenette and WC.

The first floor provides three bedsit-style units, all of which would benefit from a programme of modernisation and improvement. Two of the bedsits comprise a living/bedroom, kitchen and shower room, whilst the third comprises a living/bedroom and kitchen, with its own private shower room situated across the communal landing.

The property offers considerable potential for an investor, with the opportunity to modernise and enhance the residential accommodation whilst utilising the vacant retail premises to maximise future rental income or owner occupation. Alternatively, the retail accommodation could provide an excellent opportunity for an owner-occupier seeking prominent town centre premises with additional residential income from the first floor.

Its central location places the property within easy reach of the wide range of shops, cafés, restaurants, professional services and amenities that Leek town centre has to offer.

An excellent mixed-use investment opportunity in a prime town centre position, combining three prominent retail spaces offered with vacant possession and three residential bedsits providing an immediate rental income stream.

Location

Leek is a historic and popular market town in the Staffordshire Moorlands, renowned for its attractive architecture, independent shops and vibrant town-centre atmosphere. Known as the “Queen of the Moorlands”, the town attracts both a strong local customer base and visitors exploring the surrounding Peak District and Staffordshire Moorlands countryside.

The town centre offers a distinctive mix of independent retailers, boutiques, cafés, restaurants, galleries, antique shops and traditional businesses, creating a shopping experience that sets Leek apart from many larger high streets.

Markets remain an important part of Leek's identity, with the historic Charter Market and the Victorian Butter and Trestle Markets bringing regular activity and additional footfall into the centre. Following a significant £3.4 million refurbishment, the markets have become an important visitor attraction, recording approximately 385,000 visits in their first year following reopening.

Leek's attractive historic streetscape, thriving independent retail sector, regular markets, events and proximity to the Peak District combine to make it an appealing destination for residents, shoppers, tourists and visitors. Continued investment in the town centre further supports its position as a leading retail and commercial destination within the Staffordshire Moorlands.
