Denise White Estate Agent Comments

Located on Ash Bank Road in the popular area of Werrington, this three-bedroom semi detached property offers well-proportioned and versatile accommodation, with the added benefit of a useful loft room and further adaptable space to the ground floor.

Approached via a private driveway with parking for two to three vehicles, the property opens into a small entrance porch and purpose-built boot room, leading through to the main entrance hall with a convenient downstairs WC. From here, the dining room flows openly into a spacious lounge, creating a comfortable reception area for everyday living and entertaining. An inner hallway then leads through to the practical galley-style kitchen, with access also provided to the integral garage/carport and a separate room currently utilised as a gym, which could alternatively lend itself to a home office, hobby room or additional reception space, subject to the necessary alterations.

To the first floor are three generously proportioned double bedrooms, with bedrooms one and two benefiting from fitted wardrobe storage, alongside a family bathroom and separate WC. From the landing, a further staircase leads to the loft room, which is a particularly useful addition to the accommodation. Featuring two Velux windows and good floor space, it could serve as a home office, playroom or hobby space.

Externally, the rear garden provides a good amount of outdoor space, with a paved patio ideal for seating and the remainder laid predominantly to lawn. The property is generally well proportioned but would benefit from some cosmetic updating in places, offering an incoming purchaser the opportunity to refresh the accommodation and make it their own. Overall, it is a practical and flexible home with considerably more usable space than its initial three-bedroom layout might suggest. A viewing is highly recommended to appreciate all this property has to offer.
