Description

A well presented two bedroom apartment in a popular well maintained development off the London road. Located towards the eastern side of High Wycombe, this wonderful apartment offers excellent access to local towns and villages along with great access to London via the M40 London bound.

Inside the property is wonderfully presented with a modern feel. A welcoming entrance hall with storage cupboard leads through to all rooms. The kitchen is fitted with a good range of wall and base units complemented by integrated appliances and modern worktop space. The living room is a generous size with enough space to fit in a dining room table. Also accessed from the hallway are two double bedrooms, with the principle bedroom has built in storage. The family bathroom is also fitted with a modern suite.

Additional benefits include a communal garden, loft space for further storage, recently decorated and allocated off-street parking.
