Flat 2 James House

Description

Positioned in Caterham town centre, this vast two double bedroom apartment is ideally situated for the town's shops, restaurants, bus links and train station and is offered with allocated parking for one car. This spacious first floor apartment has its own private entrance where there is space to store bikes as well as hanging space for coats. The bright hallway greets on entry and leads into the generous open plan kitchen/living space. The modern kitchen is fully integrated, benefiting from a dishwasher and is tiled through out.

The living space is tastefully carpeted and is comfortably large enough to house both seating and dining furniture.

Both double bedrooms are carpeted and a great size, featuring excellent built in wardrobes.

The bathroom benefits from a walk in shower as well as a separate bath, toilet, sink and vanity unit.

Timber Hill Park with it's childrens play area, is a two minute walk away and is a great place to relax.

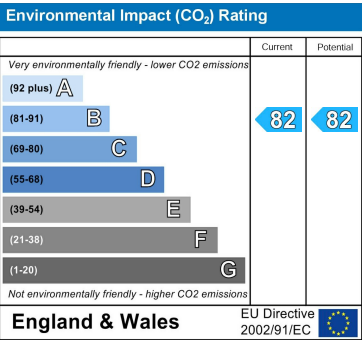

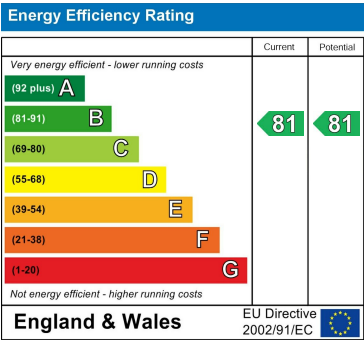

James House is available immediately on an unfurnished basis.
