A rare opportunity to acquire a beautifully proportioned, stone-built Victorian semi-detached villa in one of Perth's most sought-after addresses. This spacious four-bedroom home at 11 Queens Avenue boasts traditional charm and character throughout, complemented by generous room sizes and a good size rear garden.

The grand bay-windowed lounge welcomes you with original cornicing, high ceilings, and a charming fireplace – perfect for relaxing or entertaining guests. A second reception room offers flexibility as a formal dining area, sitting room or playroom, flowing through to the stylish, modern kitchen fitted with a range-style cooker and ample worktop space. French doors lead directly to a delightful garden, enclosed and bordered by mature planting, ideal for both kids and dogs to roam free. Upstairs, four well-proportioned bedrooms provide space for a growing family or working from home, while the main bathroom is neatly finished with a shower over bath. The property also benefits from a ground floor WC, generous storage throughout, gas central heating, and off-street parking via a driveway to the side. Although well maintained, this home offers excellent scope to personalise and further enhance, with period features providing a timeless base to work from.
