Set within the peaceful hamlet of Newton of Pitcairns adjoining the sought-after village of Dunning, Ochil House is a charming, recently modernised two-bedroom home that combines traditional character with spacious accommodation and an exceptional private garden.

The welcoming entrance hall leads to a generous living room where an attractive fireplace with wood-burning stove creates a warm focal point, complemented by high ceilings and period detailing. The bright dining kitchen offers an excellent range of shaker-style units, ample space for family dining and direct access to the rear garden. A practical utility room and separate WC complete the ground floor. Upstairs, there are two particularly spacious double bedrooms with one also featuring a large storage cupboard. The stylish shower room features a contemporary white suite and separate shower enclosure. Outside is where this home truly excels. Access via a path to the rear of the property, the beautifully maintained garden offers an idyllic retreat, with a large patio, gravelled seating areas, mature planting, a substantial timber shed and uninterrupted views towards the surrounding countryside. There is also on-street parking to the front. Offering village tranquillity within easy reach of Perth, Auchterarder and the A9, this delightful home is ideal for those seeking space, character and a wonderful outdoor lifestyle.
