For all you young families looking for a four bedroomed semi detached home within the central Greasby postcode, close to a number of hugely popular local schools, you absolutely must take a look inside this home. For we all know one oughtn't judge a book by its cover and stepping inside this absolutely gorgeously comfortable and spacious home, we reckon you'll find it hard not to be not just impressed but perhaps endeared too..

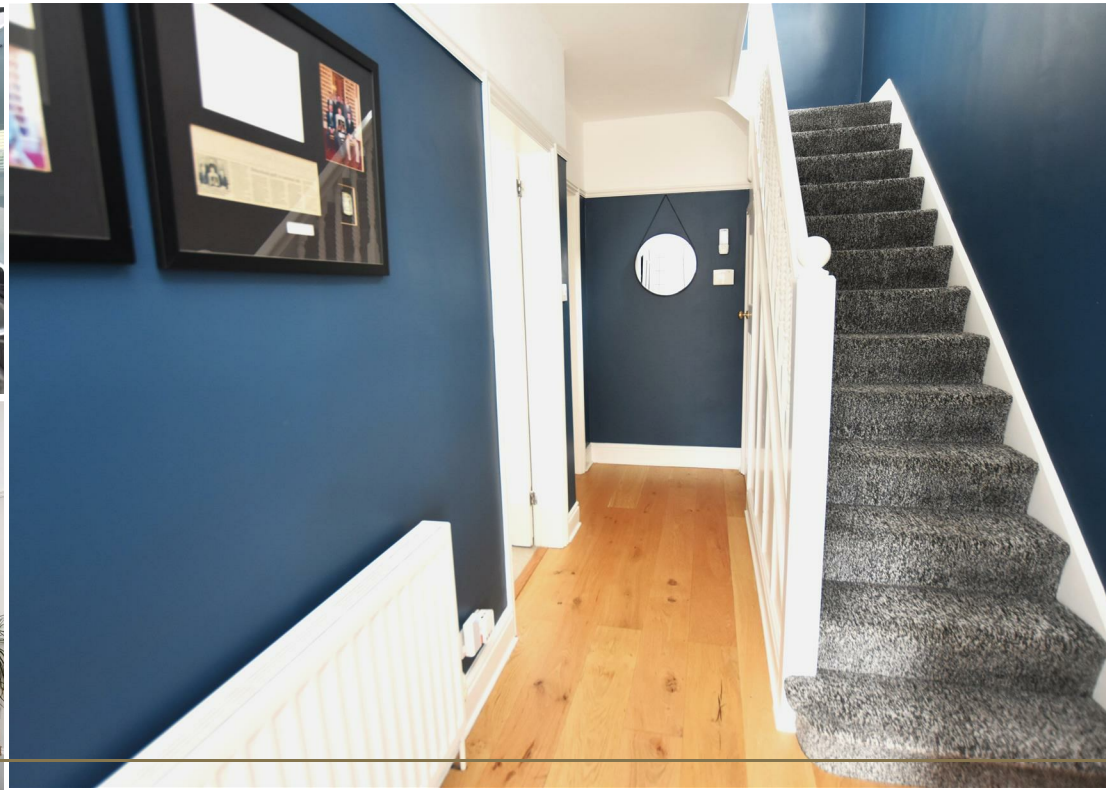

Now, your new home short list may comprise of just three generously sized 'double sized' bedrooms and with a fourth to be used a home study maybe - this home accommodates this well, with the added advantage of bedrooms being serviced by two very new full shower rooms and with one particularly generous primary top floor bedroom 'suite' too.

Naturally you may have a desire/want for some nicely designed open plan kitchen, diner and relaxing space - this home most definitely has this, and some. - it's fabulous, it's hugely convivial, it has style, it seems to be planned with practicality in mind too and also, very importantly, it's also nice bright space .

For those needing some R&R, take a look at the one of many newly decorated rooms, the front living room. Cool, calming, a very pleasant reception room....

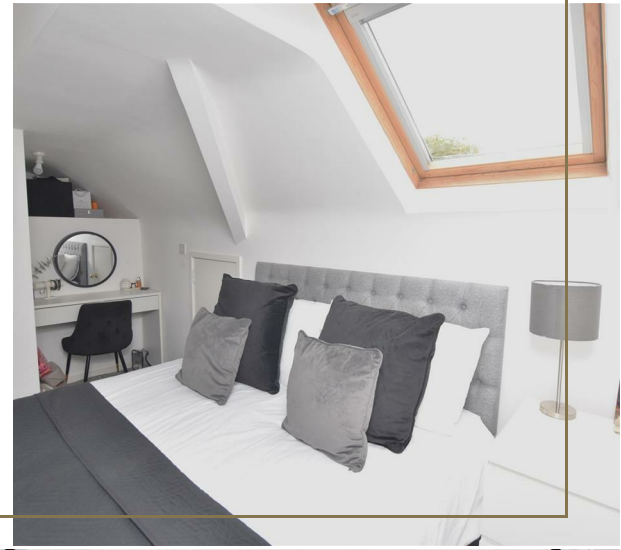

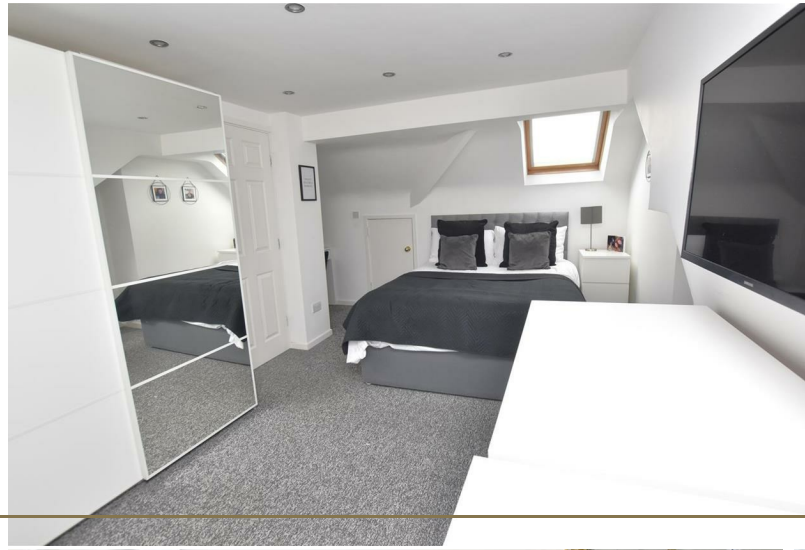

Up via what is a rather elegant entrance hall and stairs to the first floor and you'll find three of the four bedrooms. (all pristine, one just decorated) and nicely tiled shower room. Up again and to this particularly XL primary bedroom with recessed dressing table space, packs of under eaves storage and a gleaming next to new shower room. (Both shower rooms have underfloor heating). A delight to escape from the younger members of the tribe...

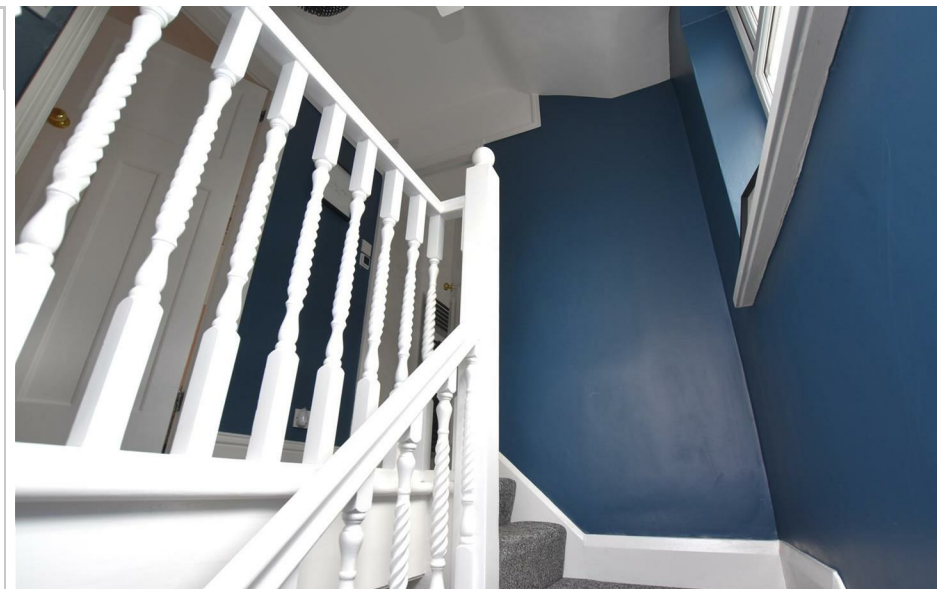

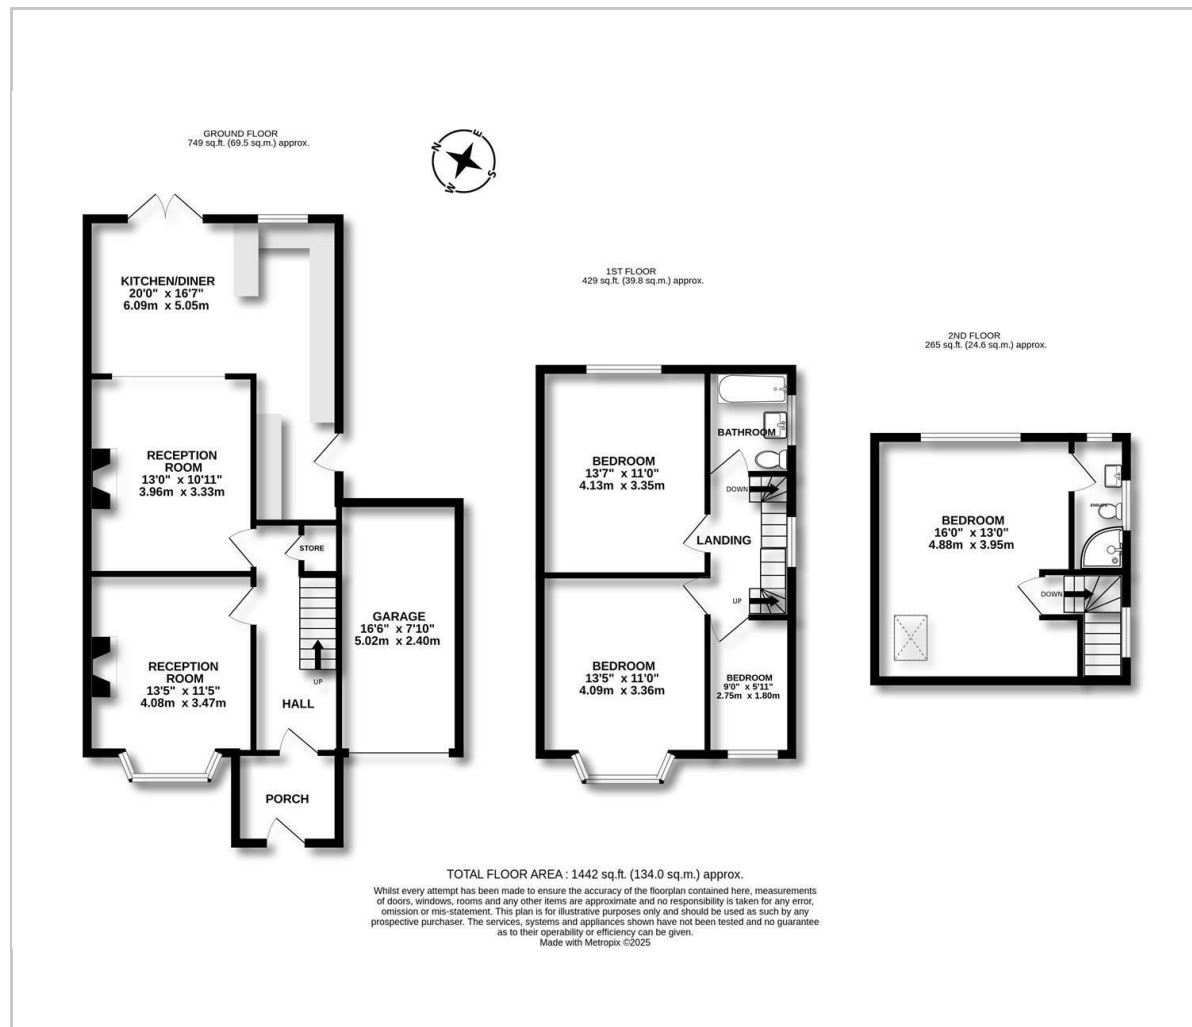

Outdoors and you may spot the EV charger and the parking for one fair sized car. The rear comprises lawn and decking, both a reasonable proportion and both taking the afternoon sun.

Central to Greasy just turn off the B5319 which is the main road through the village. Highfield Drive is close enough to walk to the shops, close enough to walk to primary school and to catch the bus, far away enough to miss the hustle and bustle that those conveniences inevitably create.
