Buskin Farm

Exbourne, Okehampton, Devon, EX20 3RL

Exbourne 1 Mile    A30 5 Miles    Okehampton 5 Miles    Exeter 27 miles

 5 Bedrooms     5 Reception Rooms     3 Bathrooms     EPC LSTD     98 Acres

Delightful 98 acre livestock / arable and residential farm on renowned red soil in the heart of the Devon Countryside. Outstanding, character 5 bedroom Grade II listed farmhouse in an elevated position. Livestock / storage buildings, traditional barns and stables. River frontage, fishing rights, far reaching views to Dartmoor.

The rural village of Exbourne is less than 1 mile from the farm where you will find a garage, a community/post office / shop and café, and a public house, pre-school, primary school and village hall.

Buskin Farm offers an outstanding opportunity to acquire a most productive 98 acre livestock / arable farm in the sought after red soil farming area, complemented by river frontage with fishing rights. The farmstead is in an idyllic, elevated position, surrounded by its own land and has stunning panoramic views.

This well-presented period farmhouse dates back to the 16th century with 17th and 19th century additions. On the Ground Floor there are slate tiled floors throughout the entrance hall, utility, shower room and kitchen with carpeted floors or wooden in the reception areas. The first floor has mainly solid oak flooring. The house boasts many character features including granite surround inglenook fireplaces, windows with deep sill window seats, exposed lintels and beams. The house benefits from oil fired central heating, underflooring heating on the ground floor, double glazed windows, solar photovoltaic array & water heating panels.

Gardens

The gardens at the front of the house are mainly lawned terraces with a gravel patio ideal for alfresco dining and entertaining. Steps lead to the lawn terraces, which are interspersed with specimen trees and flowerbed borders. Across the entrance drive is mature and very productive apple orchard extending to approximately 1.30 acres.
