Situated within the popular Ashdown Place development in Five Ash Down, this well-presented modern three-bedroom end-of-terrace home is a wonderful opportunity for all types of buyers. Providing spacious and well-designed accommodation throughout, the property would make an ideal first home, suit a growing family or appeal to those looking to downsize. The development is ideally positioned within walking distance of public transport links, a local pub and Post Office, as well as benefiting from communal children's play areas and beautiful surrounding countryside walks. Externally, the property benefits from an allocated parking space, while the level rear garden has been designed with low maintenance in mind, featuring a generous lawn and patio area, perfect for relaxing or entertaining. A rear access gate also provides added convenience. Internally, the accommodation begins with an entrance hall leading to a useful ground-floor cloakroom/WC. The bright and spacious lounge/diner provides a comfortable living space and the kitchen to the front is well equipped. Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms, all served by a stylish family bathroom. An excellent opportunity to secure a modern three-bedroom home in a popular village development.
